Numb. 7309.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 22. to Tuesday June 25. 1734.

Hague, July 2, N. S.

THE States of Holland are to assemble again on the 14th Instant, and on the 16th they will dispose of all the vacant Civil and Military Employments in their Province, for which there are a great many Competitors. Their Royal and Serene Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Orange went Yesterday to see the Country Seat of M. Slingerland, which is near Honslardyck, and were entertained by his Excellency with a magnificent Collation. Her Royal Highness has likewise been to see the House in the Wood, and the new Building which is making, with which she was extremely well pleased. The Prince will set out the Beginning of next Week for the Rhine. Letters from the Russian Camp before Dantzick of the 23d past advise, that Fort Wechselmund had surrendred, and that the French Troops encamped near it were made Prisoners of War; and that the Town had desired to capitulate. Those from the Rhine advise, that the Imperial Army was at Bruchsal, within three Leagues of the French Army.

Whitehall, June 24.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint James Montagu, Humphry Fowle, Esqrs. Sir More Molyneux, Kt. John Paul Yvonnet, and Edwyn Coney, Esqrs. to be Commissioners for Appeals and regulating the Duties of Excise.
